HTML-SLIDES · VISUAL CATALOGUE

Available layouts, content patterns and charts

Format 1 — a visual reference with fictional examples

FICTIONAL EXAMPLES

FORMAT	SLIDES
1	18

The default layout combines a message title and a 12-column content grid

Put the conclusion first, followed by its supporting arguments.

- First argument, ideally in one line.
- Second argument, with a relevant figure.
- Third argument, leading to the next step.

24 hours

example key figure and label

> Callout: the next step or a point to consider.

A larger impact title works well with three short cards

Prepare

Check tools and sort seeds.

Plant

Share simple planting tasks.

Care

Keep a predictable weekly rota.

A left-hand title introduces three points on the right

Useful for a transition or a single message supported by a short list.

- First point
- Second point
- Third point

02

LAYOUT SECTION

A divider introduces the next section

One sentence explains what the section will show

A simple shared plan makes it easier for everyone to take part.

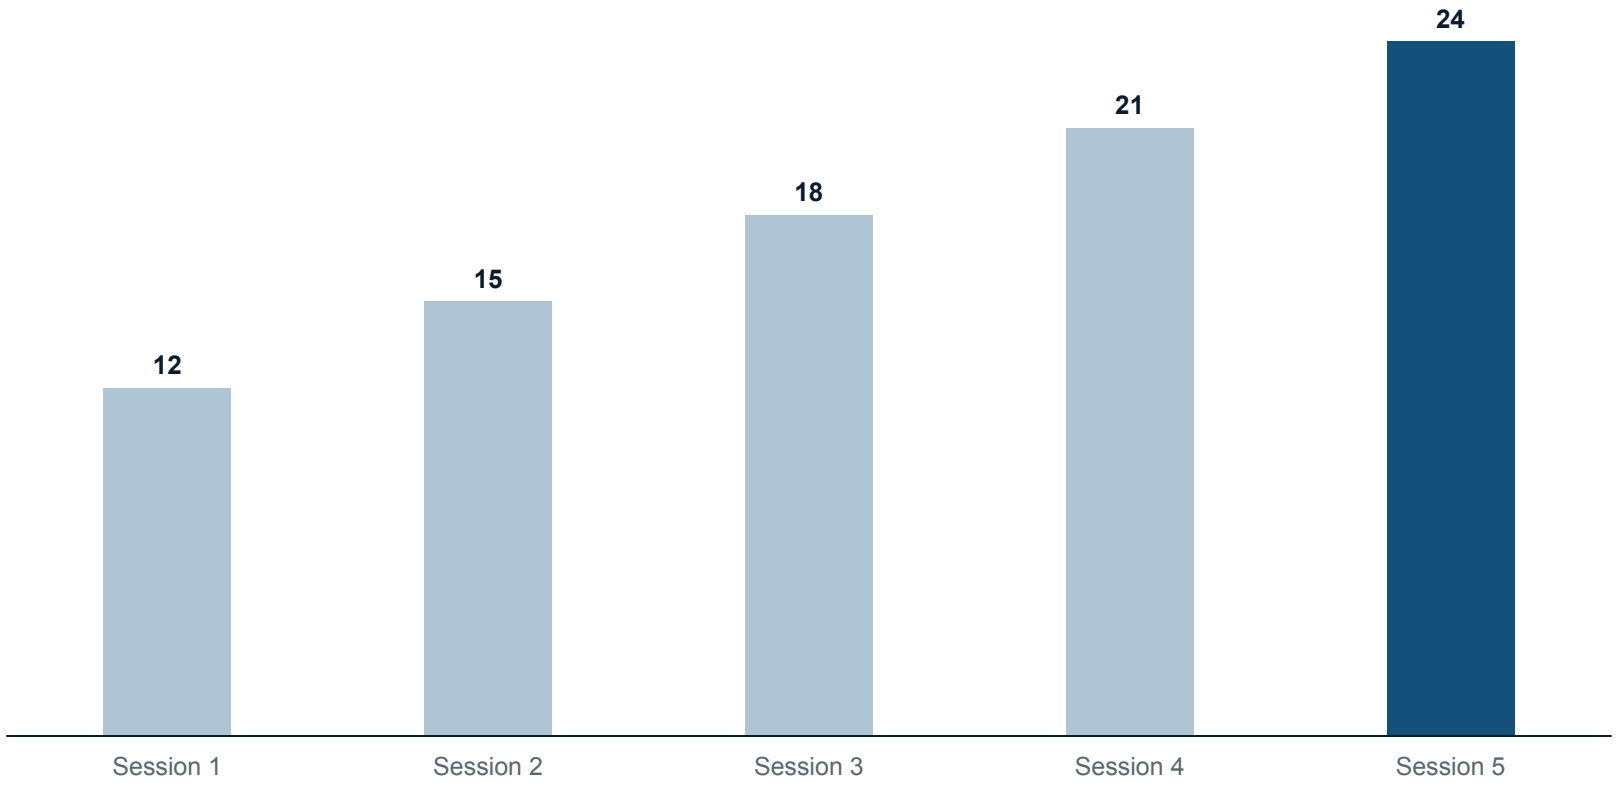

Fictional example quote — no real person or organisation

A quarter-width panel highlights a figure beside a chart

24

Participants by session

people

Source: fictional example data, not a real project

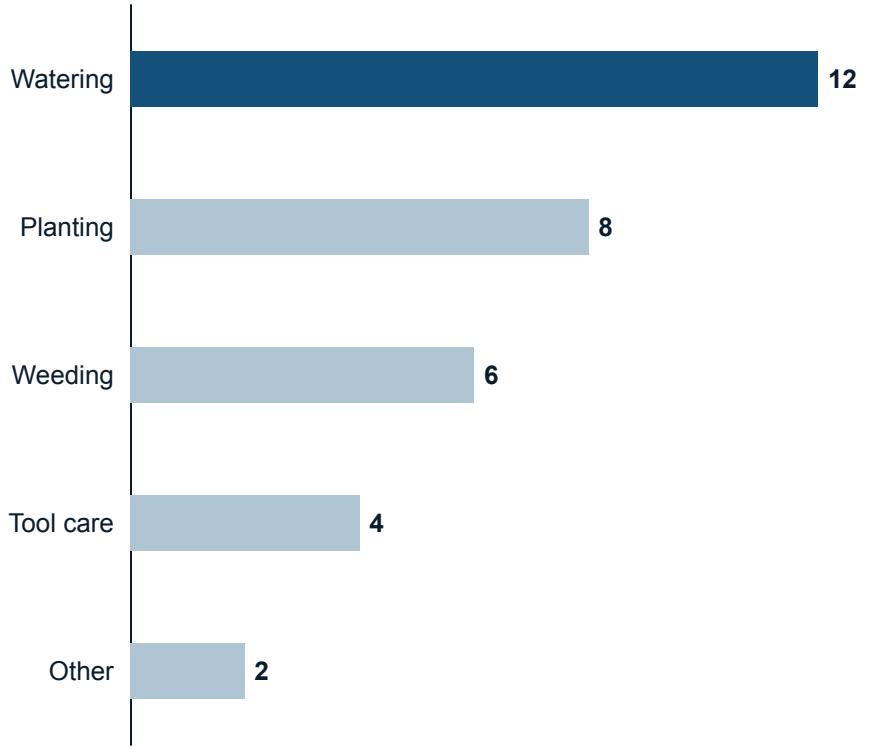

3 tasks

account for most routine work. A half-width panel leaves space for a fuller explanation.

Watering takes the most weekly volunteer time

Weekly task groups

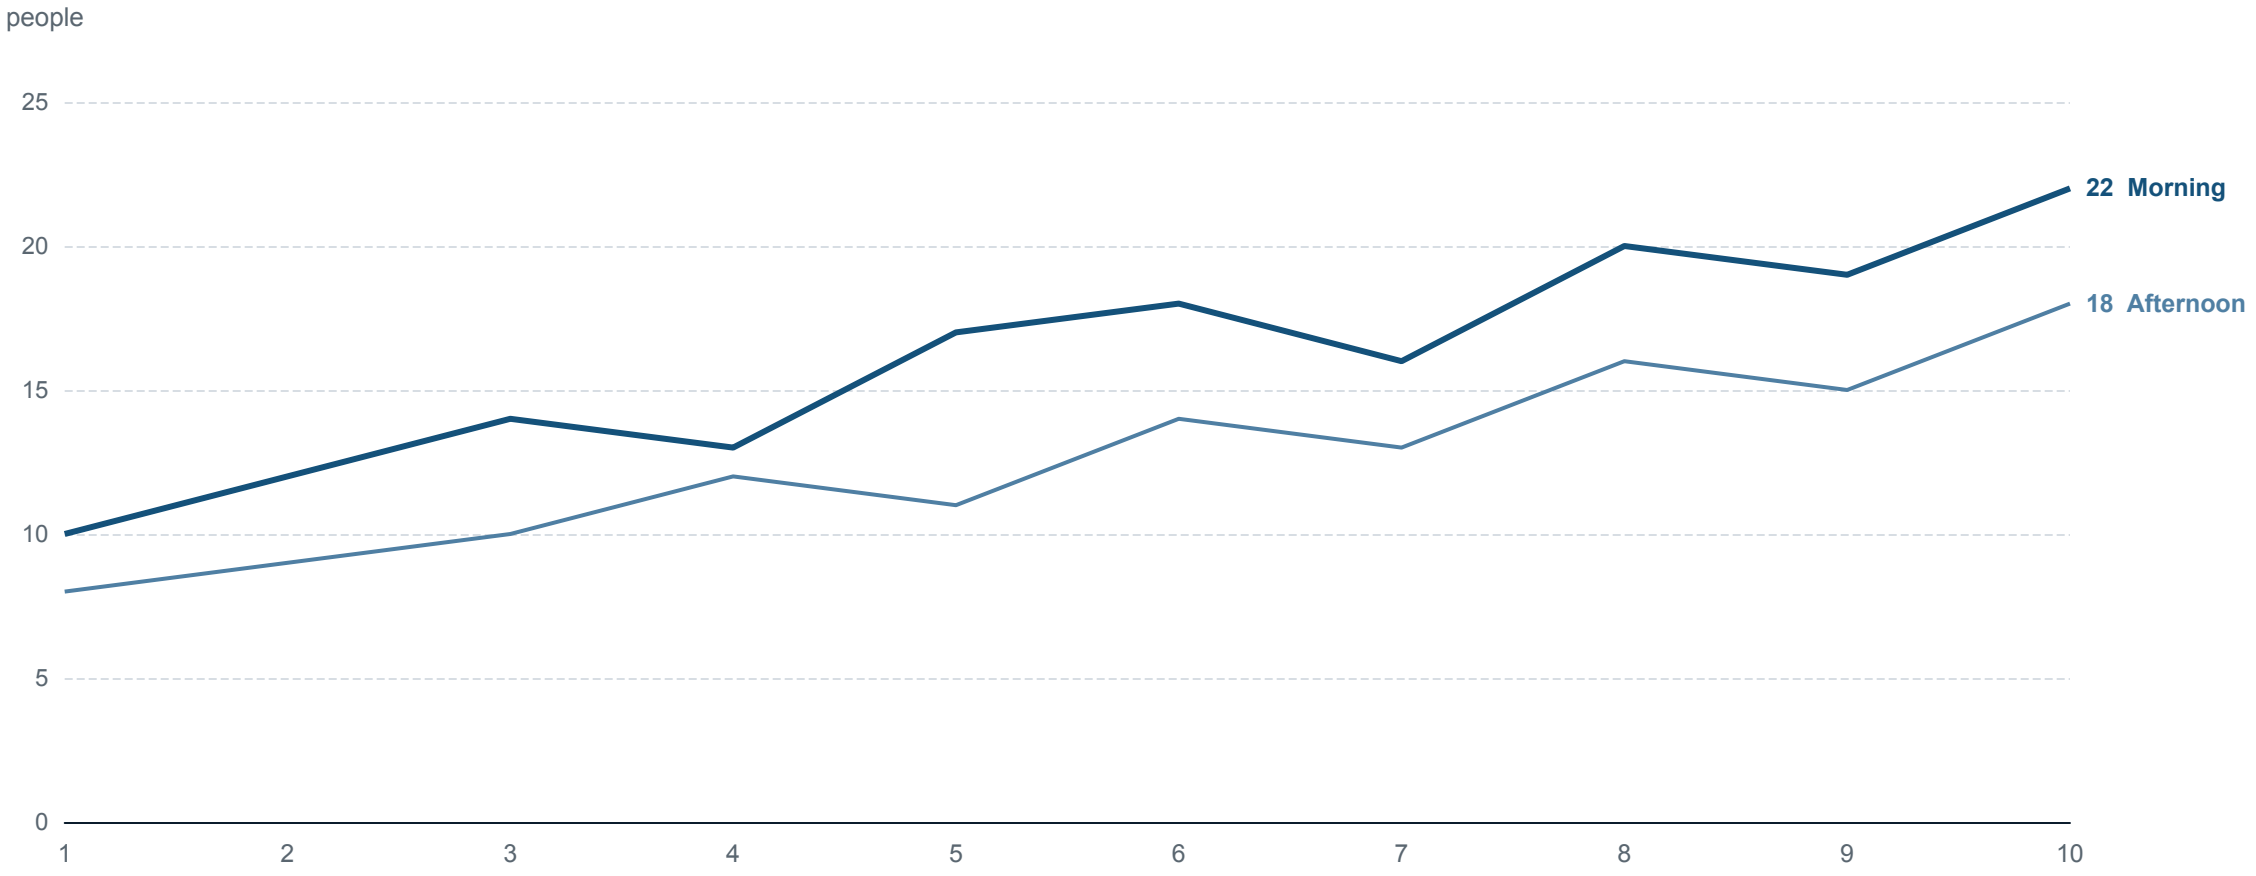

hours

Source: fictional example data, not a real project

A line chart shows attendance across ten garden sessions

Session attendance

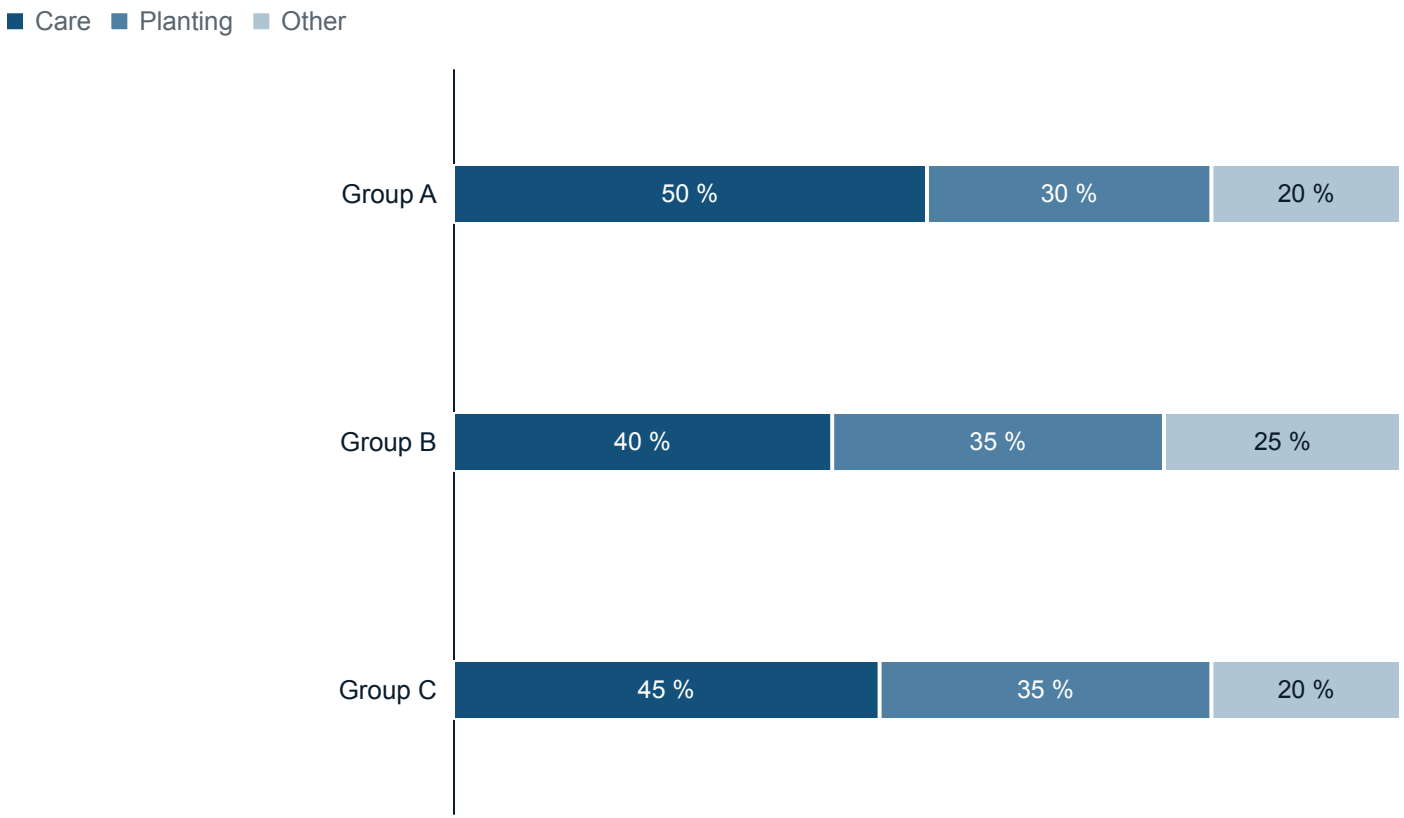

Source: fictional example data, not a real project

A 100% stacked chart compares how task groups share their time

Weekly task mix

% of volunteer time

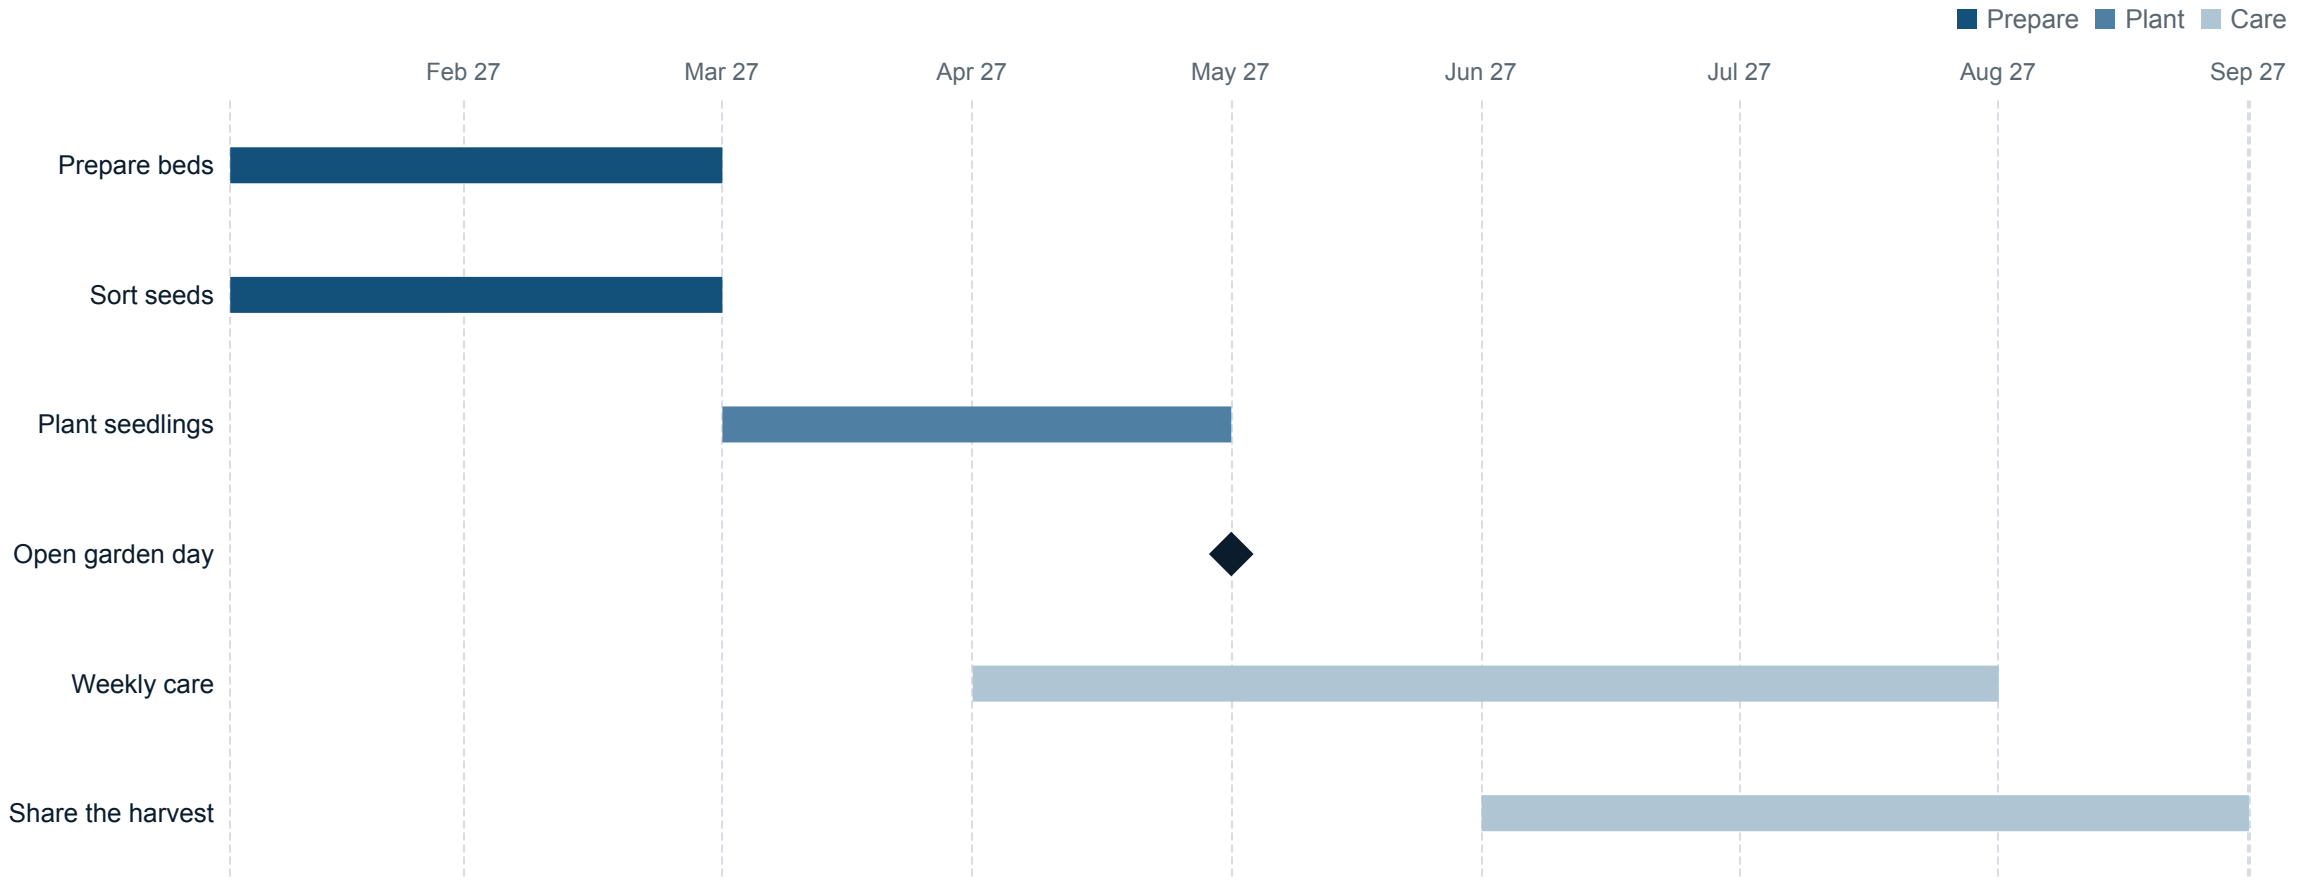

Keep commentary beside the chart to two or three short sentences.

Source: fictional example data, not a real project

The season plan groups preparation, planting and routine care

Season plan

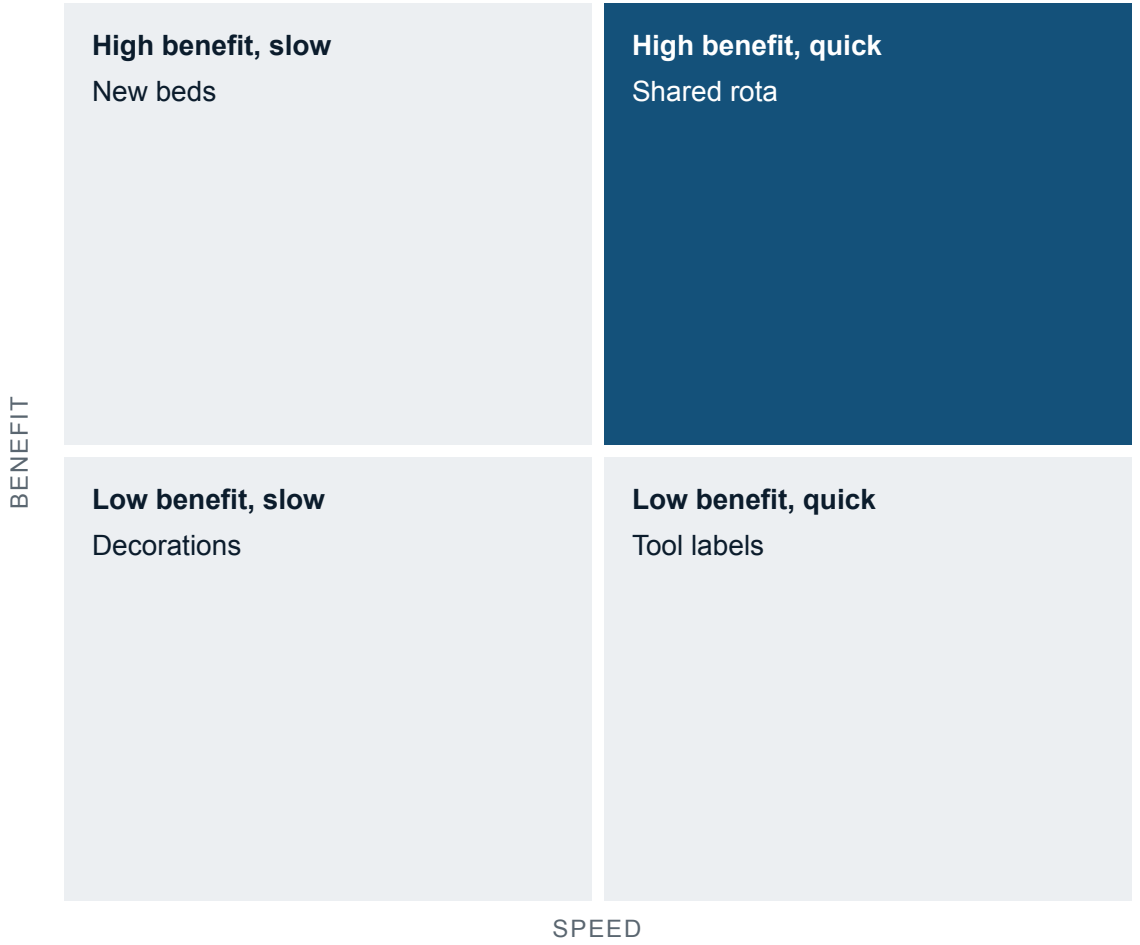

Source: fictional example data, not a real project

Three horizontal bands present three parallel findings

Prepare	Check shared tools before the first session.
Plant	Agree on simple tasks for each group.
Care	Review the watering rota every week.

A step sequence and a matrix compare practical activities

1. Prepare — 2 weeks
2. Plant — 4 weeks
3. Care — 3 months
4. Share — 1 month

4 weeks

DARK VARIANT · PANEL-13

A dark variant gives a decision slide more emphasis

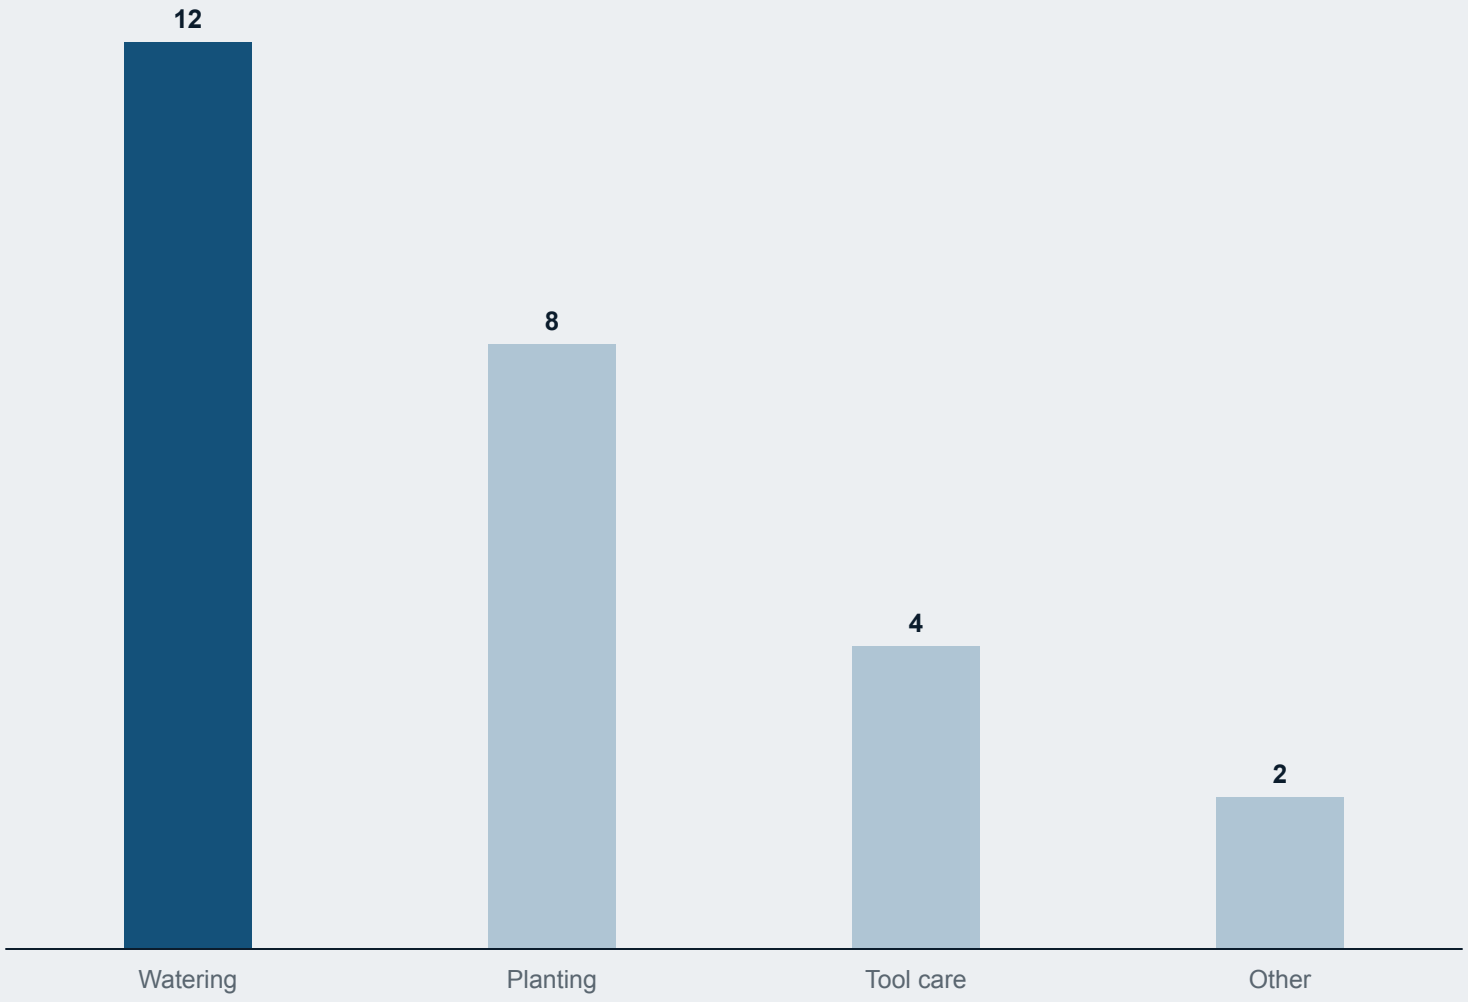

Next step: try a shared rota for one month and review it together.

A two-thirds panel carries the chart

The remaining third contains the title and a short comment.

Weekly volunteer time

hours

Source: fictional example data, not a real project

Theme classes control size, colour, fill and alignment

Tinted fill

Use bg-tint on the element.

Accent fill

bg-acc sets white text automatically.

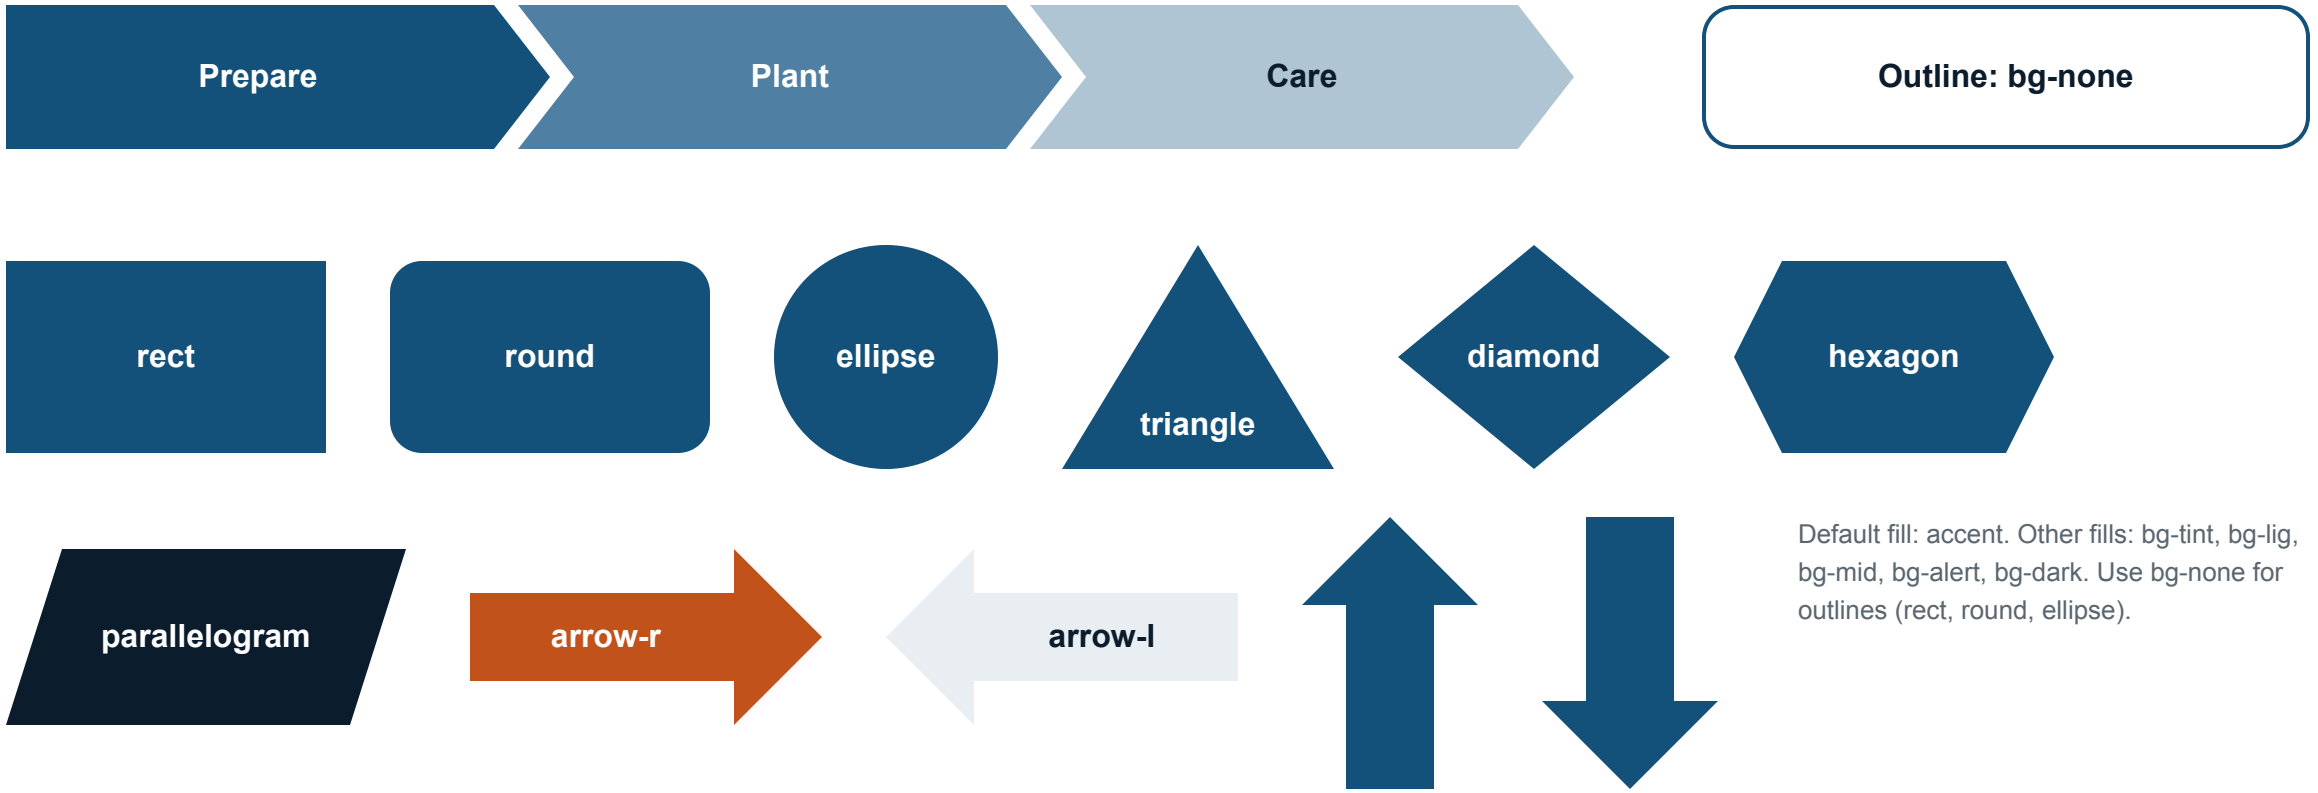

Dark and centred

Classes bg-dark ta-c.

Large text with alert emphasis and accent emphasis.

Small secondary italic text: fs-s c-t2 t-italic.

Shapes illustrate processes, steps and arrows

Default fill: accent. Other fills: bg-tint, bg-lig, bg-mid, bg-alert, bg-dark. Use bg-none for outlines (rect, round, ellipse).

End of the catalogue

Closing slide: title, details and information block